Comprehension:

Read the given passage carefully and answer the following questions that follow:

The Indian Economy in recent past, especially after 1980's has undergone many kinds of changes. Accordingly, a new pattern of fiscal federalism has emerged in order to meet the new situations/conditions resulting out of the economic transformations. The Finance Commission, as an instrument for distribution of financial resources between the federal constituents, dealt with the economic imbalances resulting out of economic changes. Besides, the Finance Commission, other institutions like NITI Aayog, as a Think Tank and various ministries are playing significant role to maintain fiscal federalism. Further, with the implementation of 73rd and 74th constitutional amendments, governments at local levels are empowered with the devolution of funds and functions. Also, GST council is created to ensure uniform tax structure which is likely to strengthen the existing fiscal federalism.

Q73 Which one of the following institutions is NOT created in post-liberal period for strengthening fiscal federalism?
